

Housing Self assessment framework

Here is a list of the resources or forms that explain the Housing Self Assessment.

You could use these to help you do the Housing Self Assessment in your area.

Introduction to the Housing Self Assessment

An introduction to the Housing Self Assessment in Easy Words and pictures.

You can use this to tell people about the Self Assessment and what it says about good housing & support

Information sheet about the Housing Self Assessment & invite

An Information sheet that you can use to tell people about the Housing Assessment framework.

You can use it to tell people about meetings where they can have their say about housing in your area

Next step

Fill the spaces in.

- Our area – the name of your Partnership Board.
- The date of the meeting.
- Contact details.

Copy of the letter asking your area to do the Self Assessment

This letter has been sent out with the papers for the Housing self assessment from the Regional Valuing People Programme Board are asking each area to do the Self Assessment

Housing Self Assessment Framework – with evidence

This is the full housing assessment framework which will help you decide how you are doing on housing and support for people with learning disabilities in your area

This is a long document that explains all the work you can do to make housing & support better. It says what is good and bad so you can rate your area

This form has been written for the people who have to fill in the final self assessment.
Other people can look at it too

Housing Self Assessment framework – Meeting questions

This is an easy read list of questions that need to be answered for the framework.

Housing Self Assessment Framework – Scoring

You can record your score at the end of each section.

Housing Self Assessment scoring summary

This is summary sheet at the end of the document so you can view your final scores easily.

My story – template

This will help get information from people with a learning disability, family carers and other supporters. This will help to complete the housing self assessment.
It will also help to plan what needs to happen next to make housing and support better in our area

Housing Self Assessment presentation

This is a presentation that you can use to tell people about the Self Assessment